"Light—A branch of fire magic aligned strongly with positive emotions such as patience, love and kindness. It deals in protective, purification and restoration spells and the suppression of others' magic. Master practitioners can create physical or magical barriers, negate magical or physical abilities, harm trespassers, or even banish the target of the spell to another plane of existence. However, it can also be a devastating ability to those with strong negative emotions such as those filled with anger, hate and evil intent."
